Pausania Table Lamp

By Artemide

Description

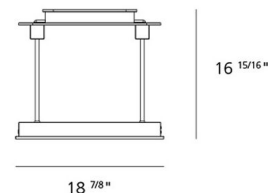

The Pausania Table Lamp is a distinguished re-edition of Ettore Sottsass's iconic 1983 design, now re-engineered with cutting-edge Tunable White technology. This innovative feature allows for myriad variations of white light, enabling you to precisely control both intensity and color temperature, from warm to cool tones. The lamp's body is crafted from a durable Black resin, providing a sturdy and elegant base, beautifully contrasted by a vibrant Green diffuser. A convenient dimmer is thoughtfully included directly on the base, offering effortless control over your personalized light settings. Featuring an integrated Tunable White LED light source, the Pausania Table Lamp delivers efficient and adaptable illumination. It makes a commanding yet refined presence on any desk or table. This re-edition beautifully merges timeless design with advanced lighting technology, offering unprecedented control over your luminous environment.
