Tolomeo Mini Desk Lamp

By Artemide

Description

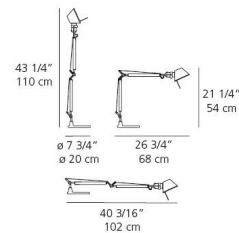

Experience the iconic design and unparalleled adjustability of the Tolomeo series in a perfectly scaled form with the Tolomeo Mini Desk Lamp. This beloved fixture features a fully adjustable arm crafted from extruded aluminum, allowing for precise directional light exactly where you need it. The compact yet powerful 6-inch diameter diffuser, made of anodized matte aluminum, is effortlessly tiltable and rotatable a full 360 degrees, ensuring optimal illumination for any task. Available in versatile finishes including classic Aluminum, sleek Black, or crisp White, each paired with a stable Aluminum base, the Tolomeo Mini seamlessly integrates into any contemporary workspace or living area. It requires one 100-watt max 120-volt medium base bulb (not included). With a depth of 26.75 inches, a height of 21.25 inches, and an impressive maximum arm length of 40.2 inches, this lamp offers exceptional reach for its size. UL listed for safety, customers consistently praise its incredible flexibility and timeless design, making it an indispensable tool for focused work, reading, or adding a stylish accent to any desk or surface.
