Tolomeo Classic Floor Lamp

By Artemide

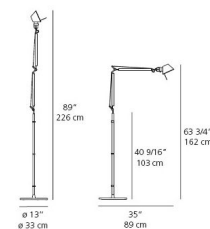

Description

Experience the timeless brilliance and unparalleled functionality of the Tolomeo Classic Floor Lamp, an iconic design that redefines task and ambient lighting. This revered fixture features a fully adjustable arm for precise light positioning, complemented by a weighted steel base that ensures unwavering stability. The Tolomeo Classic offers versatility with two lamping options. The Incandescent (INC) version requires one 100-watt max 120-volt medium base bulb (not included) and includes a convenient on/off switch on the head. For modern efficiency, the LED version features a 10-watt 120-volt LED module included, along with a sophisticated dimmer switch also located on the head for seamless brightness control. Standing with a 13-inch base width, an impressive maximum height of 89 inches, and a depth of 35 inches, this lamp provides wide, directional light distribution. UL listed for safety, customers consistently refer to it as the gold standard for adjustable lighting and praise its robust construction and iconic style. Perfect for reading nooks, living room seating areas, or as a versatile task light in a home office, the Tolomeo Classic Floor Lamp is a cornerstone of contemporary design.
