Tolomeo Reading Floor Lamp

By Artemide

Description

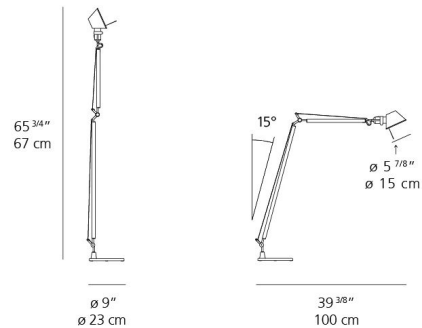

Craft the perfect reading environment with the Tolomeo Reading Floor Lamp, a focused and flexible lighting solution designed for the discerning reader. This elegant lamp features your choice of a classic Aluminum or sleek Black finish for its structure, complemented by a stable aluminum base. At its core is the fully adjustable articulated arm structure in extruded aluminum, allowing for effortless positioning of light precisely where you need it, minimizing eye strain and maximizing comfort. A convenient on/off switch is located directly on the head of the lamp for immediate control. This fixture includes its base, ensuring it's ready for use right out of the box. It requires one 75-watt max 120-volt medium base bulb (not included), which when directed, provides concentrated and efficient light. Customers consistently praise its unmatched adjustability and ideal illumination for reading, making it a favorite among avid readers and those seeking dedicated task lighting. The Tolomeo Reading Floor Lamp stands as a testament to contemporary design, offering both sophisticated aesthetics and unparalleled functional performance.
