Tolomeo Classic Desk Lamp By Artemide

Description

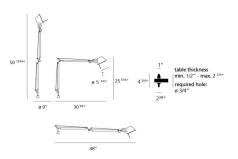

Experience the enduring brilliance of design with the Tolomeo Classic Desk Lamp, an iconic fixture that epitomizes perfect functional balance and sleek aesthetics. This beloved lamp features a stable weighted aluminum base and is available with a versatile White, Black, or classic Aluminum body finish, allowing it to seamlessly integrate into any contemporary interior. At its core is the fully adjustable arm crafted from extruded aluminum, providing exceptional reach and precise light positioning. The signature joints and tension-control knobs, crafted from durable die-cast aluminum, ensure smooth and effortless articulation. The diffuser is remarkably tiltable and rotatable a full 360 degrees, allowing you to direct light exactly where it's needed for optimal task illumination or ambient glow. A convenient on/off switch is cleverly integrated on the head for easy access. The Tolomeo Classic offers unparalleled versatility with its Table Base, In-set pivot, or Clamp mounting option, adapting to virtually any workspace configuration. Customers consistently praise its timeless design, unmatched adjustability, and robust build quality, making it an indispensable tool for designers, architects, students, and anyone seeking a superior and stylish desk lamp.
