Tolomeo Shade Spot Wall Light

By Artemide

Description

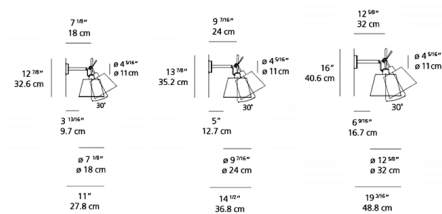

Combine the focused functionality of a spot light with the warm ambiance of a shade using the Tolomeo Shade Spot Wall Light. This elegant fixture features a sophisticated parchment paper or silver fiber shade, providing a beautifully diffused light that enhances any space. The shade is meticulously paired with a sleek wall support, joints, canopy, and arm, all in polished aluminum, creating a cohesive and refined aesthetic. Designed for precise illumination, the shade adjusts to a full downward position for direct task lighting and a maximum 30-degree upward position for a soft ambient glow, offering versatile light control. It mounts effortlessly to a standard electrical junction box for a clean, integrated installation. A convenient on/off switch is located directly on the lamp holder for easy access. Customers consistently praise its unique blend of style and function and beautiful, soft light. Ideal for illuminating artwork, highlighting architectural features, or providing adjustable reading light in a bedroom or living room, the Tolomeo Shade Spot Wall Light offers a perfect fusion of contemporary and transitional design.
