New Canaan Wall Sconce

By Hudson Valley Lighting

Description

Embrace the enduring beauty and robust resilience of the New Canaan Wall Sconce, a fixture meticulously designed to thrive in challenging environments while elevating your home's aesthetic. Its solid brass construction and triplex glass ensure it can withstand even the harshest coastal conditions, making it an ideal choice for both fine interiors and outdoor applications. The New Canaan in its captivating Aged Brass finish exudes an authentic, bygone-era charm, with thoughtful details such as the elegant drip loop at the base of the bulb cage. A luminous glossy opal glass shade beautifully diffuses the light, casting a soft, inviting glow. Whether gracing your bathroom with its wet-rated durability, illuminating a covered porch, or adding a touch of industrial-coastal elegance to an entryway, the New Canaan Wall Sconce offers both exceptional performance and sophisticated design. This fixture is UL Wet Listed, guaranteeing its suitability for direct water exposure.
