Collette Charging Desk Lamp

By Adesso Corp.

Description

The Collette Charging Desk Lamp is an adjustable, mid-century modern styled LED Task Light that includes a wireless charging pad with Qi inductive charging technology. A USB is located on the base and can charge up a second device simultaneously. A sleek pad design that is flush with the surrounding area provides an attractive charging station with easy access to your phone while it's charging. Just plug in the lamp and the charger will work. Includes on/off touch switch on shade.
