Edge 30 Suspension

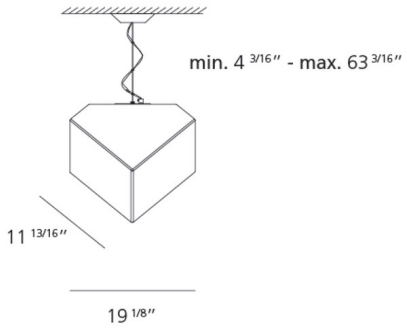

By Artemide

Description

Discover minimalist form and effective illumination with the Edge 30 Suspension, a clean and contemporary lighting solution. This sleek pendant features a pristine white thermoplastic diffuser, designed to provide beautifully general light distribution, casting a soft, even glow throughout your space. The fixture is completed with a coordinating thermoplastic resin ceiling rose, ensuring a seamless and integrated look against your ceiling. Its understated design allows it to blend effortlessly into various interior styles, while still offering a distinct architectural and contemporary presence. Customers appreciate its simple yet effective design and clean, diffused light. Perfect for kitchen islands, dining areas, or modern living spaces, the Edge 30 Suspension provides a quiet elegance that enhances the overall ambiance without overwhelming the decor.
