Tolomeo LED Mini Desk Lamp

By Artemide

Description

Experience the iconic design and unparalleled adjustability of the Tolomeo series, now with advanced LED technology, in the Tolomeo LED Mini Desk Lamp. This beloved fixture features a fully adjustable arm crafted from extruded aluminum, allowing for precise directional light exactly where you need it. The signature joints, tension control knobs, and mountings, crafted from polished die-cast aluminum, alongside durable stainless steel cables, ensure smooth operation and lasting quality. An integrated LED light source provides efficient, high-quality illumination, while a convenient dimmer switch is incorporated directly on the head for effortless brightness control. The diffuser is designed for optimal light direction, offering 90 degrees of rotation. UL listed for safety, customers consistently praise its incredible flexibility and energy-efficient design, making it an indispensable tool for focused work, reading, or adding a stylish accent to any desk or surface in a contemporary setting.
