DESCRIPTION

The Carrie Portable Table Lamp, by Norm Architects, is designed to honor Hygge, a way of life in Denmark where the winters are long and cold. This piece can be used in a variety of settings, as well as an alternative to candle light. A button on the base allows you to cycle through the three light intensities. Includes a magnetic micro USB charging port. Lamp shade is removable. Note: In order to preserve the health of the battery, only keep Carrie plugged in while charging and do not turn the lamp on while charging.
