Tolomeo Shade Reading Floor Lamp

By Artemide

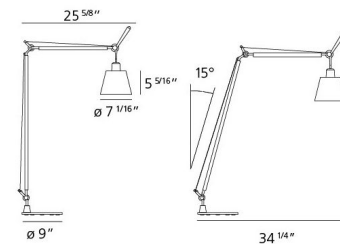

Description

Craft the perfect reading experience with the Tolomeo with Shade Reading Floor Lamp, a sophisticated blend of iconic design and ambient illumination. This lamp features a fully adjustable articulated arm body structure in extruded natural anodized aluminum, allowing for precise positioning of light. The signature joints, tension control knobs, and mountings, crafted from polished die-cast aluminum, alongside robust stainless steel support cables, ensure fluid movement and lasting durability. A beautiful 7-inch diameter shade, available in classic Parchment or modern Grey Fiber, provides a soft, diffused glow perfect for comfortable reading. An incorporated on/off switch on the lampholder offers easy access. The lamp is also available in a compact fluorescent option for added versatility. Grounded by a stable 9-inch diameter base, this lamp is designed for both functionality and aesthetic appeal. UL listed for safety, customers consistently praise its elegant design and perfect reading light, making it a cherished addition to any reading nook or living area in a contemporary home.
