Tolomeo Micro Wall Spot

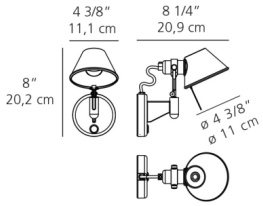

By Artemide

Description

Introduce focused and flexible illumination to your walls with the Tolomeo Micro Wall Spot. This sleek fixture features a highly polished die-cast aluminum finish canopy, exuding a modern and refined aesthetic. At its heart is a fully adjustable, rotatable, and tiltable diffuser in natural anodized aluminum, allowing you to direct light with unparalleled precision exactly where it's needed. Whether highlighting artwork, providing targeted task lighting, or creating an accent, this wall spot offers effortless control. The thoughtfully designed mounting plate discreetly conceals hardware and seamlessly mounts to a standard electrical box, centered on the fixture's canopy for a clean, integrated look. Customers consistently praise its compact size and powerful light and exceptional versatility. Ideal for hallways, reading nooks, or as a sophisticated accent in any living space, the Tolomeo Micro Wall Spot embodies contemporary and transitional design, offering a blend of robust functionality and timeless style.
