Meteorite Small Wall / Ceiling Light

By Artemide

Description

At once raw and exquisitely finished, the Meteorite Small Wall / Ceiling Light is a compelling expression of accessible beauty designed to enhance any surface. This versatile fixture features double-layered glass that has been expertly frosted, mounted on a robust technopolymer and steel body, ensuring both durability and a sleek, integrated appearance. The unique glass diffuser, crafted through specialized techniques, creates a beautifully diffused light that softens harsh shadows and provides a gentle, ambient glow. Its distinctive texture adds a subtle visual interest that makes it stand out without overpowering your space. Ideal for both wall and ceiling applications, the Meteorite Small Light is perfect for illuminating hallways, bathrooms, or adding a sculptural element to a contemporary living area. Its adaptable design allows it to seamlessly blend into diverse interiors while providing a touch of artistic flair and exceptional illumination.
