NH 1217 Wall Light

By Artemide

Description

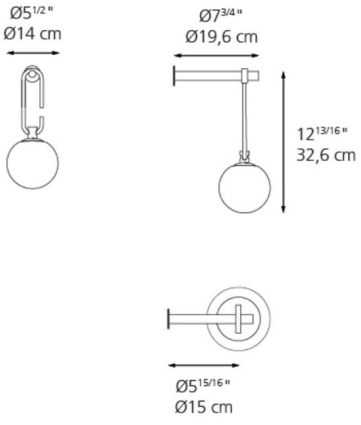

Introduce a touch of modern artistry to your walls with the NH 1217 Wall Light, a captivating design from the acclaimed Neri & Hu studio. This exceptional fixture is a testament to the seamless fusion of traditional craftsmanship and contemporary innovation.The defining feature of the NH 1217 is its elegant white blown glass sphere, designed to gracefully slide along a chic brushed brass ring. This dynamic assembly suspends from a sleek black wall support, creating a visually engaging and subtly adjustable lighting experience. The exquisite blend of materialsthe soft translucence of glass, the warm luster of brass, and the grounding presence of black metalforms a harmonious composition that elevates any interior.Committed to a sustainable future, this wall light is equipped for a low-consumption retrofit LED light source, offering brilliant, energy-efficient illumination. Even its eco-friendly cardboard packaging speaks to a conscientious design philosophy. For added convenience, an on/off switch is thoughtfully integrated into the cord. Customers often highlight the sculptural quality and ambient glow of the NH series, noting how these fixtures add a sophisticated touch without being overly dominant, making this versatile wall light perfect for bedside illumination, accenting hallways, or adding a refined touch to reading nooks.
