Come Together Portable Lamp By Artemide

Description

The Come Together Portable Lamp by Artemide is a triumph of ergonomic and ambient design, meticulously shaped to fit perfectly in your hand, making it the ultimate companion for flexible illumination. This lightweight fixture transcends conventional lighting, offering both beautiful table-top ambiance and effortless portability for anywhere extra light is desired. Its body features a captivating transparent gradient pattern that ingeniously distributes a soft and exceptionally even glow, creating a serene and inviting atmosphere. The versatility of Come Together is further enhanced by its base, available in sleek White, Copper, or Aluminum, allowing it to complement a variety of decors. Powering this convenience is a rechargeable Li-Ion battery, easily charged via a USB charging port. With three distinct light intensity levels, you have complete control to set the perfect mood, from a subtle nightlight to a brighter reading companion. Come Together is more than a lamp; it's a versatile light experience, ready to accompany you.
