Ruspa 4 Table Lamp

By Martinelli Luce

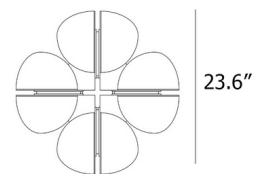

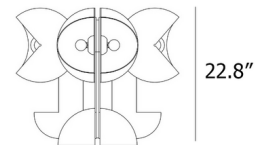

Description

The Ruspa 4 Table Lamp takes its name from the Italian word for bulldozer, a reference to its moveable arms and reflectors that recall the look of a bulldozer's front blade and hydraulic arms. Each of Ruspa's reflector shades can be raised and lowered independently to direct light upwards or downwards. Originally designed in 1968, Ruspa is a mid-century Italian classic that will stand out in any space. On/off switch on cord.
