DESCRIPTION

The Andes Mirror is an incredibly unique and a visually dynamic statement mirror that mixes Natural and Black finished rattan for a tribal-inspired design that resembles porcupine quills. The natural material is first woven to frame a round mirror before left to go wild in any direction it chooses. Whether stylishly showcased over a fireplace or displayed over an entryway console, this large-scale looking glass visually defies traditional style in any space it occupies. Actual mirror size: 19.5 inches.
