Rachel Wall Sconce

By Crystorama

Description

The Rachel Wall Sconce combines steel, glass and silk to create a stinking piece of transitional lighting. Place the Rachel long a hallway wall or above a bedside table to add an air of ambiance to your space. The oval white silk shade produces just the right amount of soft light to make a comfortable and inviting space. To maximize this design's versatility, each Rachel Wall Sconce ships with both a metal tail and finial and glass tail and finial.
