Demetra Professional Floor Lamp

By Artemide

Description

The Demetra Professional Floor Lamp by Artemide, a masterpiece of minimalist functionality from Naoto Fukasawa, embodies the ultimate flexibility for targeted illumination. This elegant floor lamp delivers a precise and adaptable light source, perfect for enhancing productivity and comfort in any sophisticated workspace.Crafted in a sleek minimal aluminum form, the Demetra boasts an exceptional range of movement with its adjustable arms and a fully rotatable head, allowing you to direct efficient LED lighting exactly where it's needed. Its integrated anti-glare reflector ensures comfortable, focused illumination without harshness, making it ideal for reading, working, or intricate tasks. A sensitive touch dimmer located directly on the lamp head provides intuitive control over brightness levels. Inspired by the Greek goddess of harvest, the Demetra is meticulously designed to create a productive environment for harvesting creativity, whether in a bustling business office, a quiet home study, or any other professional setting.
