NH 1217 Table Lamp

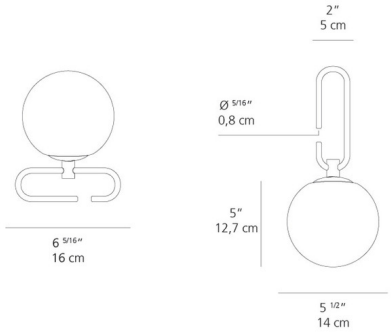

By Artemide

Description

The NH 1217 Table Lamp, designed by the visionary Neri&Hu for Artemide, elegantly bridges tradition with innovative design, making it a versatile and compelling addition to a variety of interior spaces. This piece is a testament to thoughtful craftsmanship and sustainable principles.At its heart, a charming globe-shaped White blown glass sphere emits a gentle, diffused light, perfectly accented by a gleaming Gold-finished base. The unique design allows the globe to be adjusted, enabling you to pivot it for your own unique look and directional preference, offering personalized illumination. Beyond its aesthetic appeal, this lamp is a strong expression of responsible and sustainable design, conveyed through its use of a low-consumption retrofit LED light source and its eco-friendly cardboard packaging. An intuitive on/off switch located on the cord ensures ease of use for this piece that combines contemporary flair with a nod to traditional elegance.
