Curiosity Portable Table Lamp

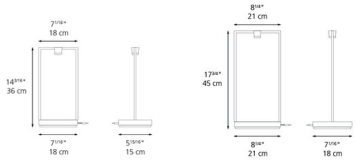

By Artemide

Description

The Curiosity Portable Table Lamp by Artemide, a unique creation, transcends traditional lighting by celebrating the objects it illuminates. This innovative portable lamp acts as a personal stage, showcasing treasured items within its elegant frame, transforming them into focal points with a beautifully controlled spotlight.Designed for maximum impact and versatility, the lamp features a small, integrated spotlight at its top, casting a focused glow on whatever is placed inside. This illumination is further enhanced by a white glass sphere with an amber light, creating a warm, inviting atmosphere that subtly enhances positive emotions. Remarkably portable, its charge lasts an impressive 16 hours, making it an ideal tool for dynamic retail spaces, captivating exhibitions, or atmospheric restaurants where it effortlessly creates an elegant and engaging ambiance. Each lamp comes complete with a USB port and charger, ensuring convenience, and is available in two sizes to suit various display needs.
