Tab T Table Lamp By FLOS

Description

Experience targeted illumination and minimalist design with the Flos Tab T Table Lamp, a functional sculpture that provides precise light exactly where you need it. This lamp features an intelligently designed adjustable head with a full 180-degree rotation, allowing you to effortlessly direct the light beam. The lamp body is crafted from finely painted aluminum, ensuring durability and a sleek finish. It's combined with a sophisticated multi-LED diffuser made of PMMA, meticulously engineered to eliminate the distracting multi-shadow effect and prevent glare, providing a consistently clear and comfortable light. A convenient dimmer switch located on the cord offers seamless control over brightness, making the Tab T an ideal companion for tasks, reading, or simply adding a focused accent to your contemporary space.
